

Anti-Bullying Week 2025: Power walk scenarios Handout C

A group chat is created, and someone is deliberately left out.

Someone posts a hurtful comment under a classmate's photo on social media.

A student drops their books in the corridor and others laugh.

A video of a student messing up a presentation is shared without their permission.

A classmate is sitting alone, looking upset, but nobody asks if they're okay.

A teacher asks a question in class, and one pupil gets it wrong; a few others start whispering and giggling.

Someone makes up a nickname for a classmate as a joke, and it upsets them.

Someone makes fun of another pupil's appearance loudly so others can hear.

During group work, one pupil's ideas are constantly ignored or made fun of.
