

Change – Lyric Sheet

Andy & the Odd Socks

A song written for Anti-Bullying Week 2019

Verse

Hey you, (who me?), are you stuck in your ways (huh?)
Stuck in the mud like a stuck thing stays (hmm)
Time has come to choose another way (ok, ok, which way?)
If you're like a statue and you never move (mmmhhmm)
You need to shake a leg and hit that groove (ok!)
Say I'm gonna make a change today (I'm gonna make a change today)

Bridge

Boom boom, yeh I've got your back
Boom boom if you're under attack
Boom boom ain't never gonna look the other way
No way, no way Jose

Chorus

If all of us move together
All of us can change for ever
A little bit of change goes a long long way
If all of us raise our hands
And each and everybody stands
Together we can make a change

Verse

Hey you, (who me?) are you stuck like glue (yep)
Stuck like bubble gum on somebody's shoe (that's me)
Cos all of us can change somehow
If you're half asleep and you can't wake up

It's time to make move and shake it all up (brrr)
Cos the time for change is here right now (yeh, ok, alright, let's go)

Rap

Just remember if you're under attack, where you're at
We've got your back and that's that, no slack,
You know we've all been there, it ain't nice, or fair
Not where you should be, you don't need to be there
Cos it ain't ok, not gonna happen today
Never ever gonna look the other way, no way
We'll stand up tall and make the call and break your fall,
We're one of you and you're one of us all

Chorus

If all of us move together
All of us can change for ever
A little bit of change goes a long long way
If all of us raise our hands
And each and everybody stands
Together we can make a change
