

FUN AND FUNKY FUNDRAISING IDEAS

If you are under 18 years old please get a parent or guardian's permission before you start fundraising for Anti-Bullying Alliance.

1

Bake cakes and sell to friends, family, classmates and co-workers. Why not find some amazing recipes online – you could even try and replicate our logo in cake form! Or pop on an ABA cake topper and you're good to go!

3

Create a festival of stars. Put on a show. Sing, dance, act, do cartwheels - whatever it takes to celebrate all your unique wonder and brilliance.

5

Recreate a cinema. Put on an anti-bullying film marathon or start a film club where you can discuss issues relating to bullying in the films, for example in the Harry Potter films.

7

Have a 'pick-me-up' party – invite members of your community to give a donation for a quick pick me up – it could be a cup of tea and a piece of cake, a spicy curry or a quick manicure!

2

Get sponsored to knit odd socks for Odd Socks Day. You could turn them into bunting to show your support for the week!

4

Hold sporting contests with a difference. Invite the police, the fire service or even your local MP to take part. Stick to traditional sports or use alternative games such as Twister or Scrabble. Use these events to put anti-bullying principles of respect and sportsmanship into effect.

6

Dress as people who have influenced your life for the better – these could be famous people who have inspired you, or it might be someone from your family or your local community.

8

Make cards of inspiration and encouragement – these can be shared with others when they are feeling down.

We would love to see your photos and hear your stories. These can be used to make us smile and to get others involved. Please send to aba@ncb.org.uk or post on our Facebook page www.facebook.com/antibullyingalliance.

If you do decide to raise money for the Anti-Bullying Alliance you can set up a fundraising page with Virgin Money Giving. Please note that the Anti-Bullying Alliance is hosted by the National Children's Bureau (NCB) – and NCB are the registered charity.

We have included a sponsorship form in this pack if you would rather use this than an online tool. Cheques should be made payable to the 'Anti-Bullying Alliance' and sent to Anti-Bullying Alliance, National Children's Bureau, 23 Mentmore Terrace, London, E8 3PN. We do not recommend that you post cash or you could donate via <https://www.justgiving.com/campaign/aba?success=true>

Please don't forget to send your name and contact details so we can say thank you.
