

POWER FOR GOOD: LYRIC SHEET

SONG BY ANDY AND THE ODD SOCKS

Verse 1:

You got fire, you got grit
See a storm? You tame it
Step up, don't run
'Cos power is for everyone

You got bam, you got boom
Make a noise, shake the room
Bear cub, go roar
Use your voice, that's what it's for

Chorus:

Use your power
Your power for good, good, good
Use it all, use it all
Use it all for good, yeah
Use your power
Your power for good, good, good
Use it all for good

Verse 2:

You got courage, in your voice
So use it, it's your choice
Braveheart, speak out
'Cos that's what it's all about

Verse 2 continued:

You got oomph, you got zing
Be cool, it's your thing
Rock kid, be you
Holler what you know, holler what you know is true

Repeat chorus

Rap:

You got the voice, you got the right
To turn the mood without a fight, from dark to light
So strike a spark, and light the dark
Use your power, no doubts, no question marks
You know you could, you know you should
You got power, so use it all for good
Be the voice, say your name
Face your fear, call it out and make a change

Repeat chorus and outro
