

Rúben Dias's Anti-Bullying 'Team Talk Challenge' 2025 – Consent Form

The Anti-Bullying Alliance is part of the National Children's Bureau (NCB) Family and we need to make sure we protect the personal information about the children, young people and young adults we work with. We need to tell you how and why we are collecting and storing information about you.

The National Children's Bureau is required to comply with the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA) and the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 (GDPR)

The UK law says that parents must give permission for us to keep information about their children if you are under 13 years old. This is called consent. Because we have to protect the information of children and young people with different needs, we have set our age limit at 16 years old.

This means if you are 13 – 16 years old, and would like to take part in this competition, we must have your Parents/guardians consent, and your consent, to collect and store your information.

If any of this information changes, please contact us at aba@ncb.org.uk.

Please also ensure that you read and sign the consent forms on the following pages.

How we collect and keep information about you:

- This Consent form will only be stored electronically.
- If you sign a paper copy of this form, we will make an electronic copy and safely get rid of the paper copy within 7 days.
- Only members of NCB's Anti-Bullying Alliance and the staff submitting the video for this competition will be able to see your information.
- All of your information will be kept safe with passwords, which only members of the Anti-Bullying Alliance team will know.

How long we keep information about you:

- We will keep your information and this Consent form for no longer than 3 years.
- After 3 years we will safely get rid of it.

You and your parent/guardian can change your mind about us storing your information at any time. This is called withdrawing consent. If you would like to do this please contact: aba@ncb.org.uk

By completing and signing this form, you and your parent/guardian are agreeing to the named young person entering this competition, and letting NCB collect and store information you have given about you.
