

SCHOLASTIC CHILDREN'S BOOKS PROMOTING ANTI-BULLYING

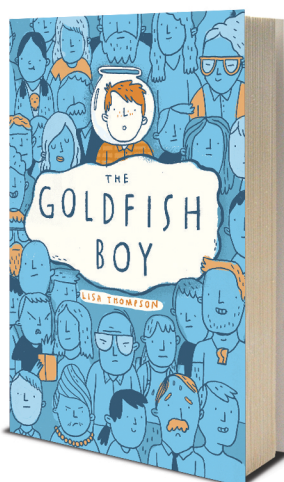

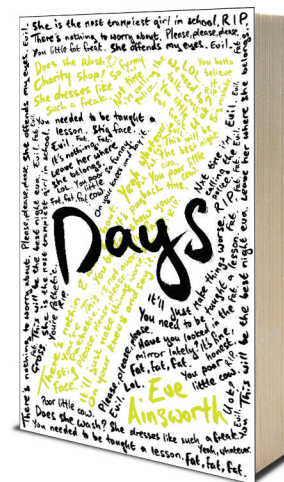

7 Days

2015 | £6.99 | 9781407146911

"A gritty and painful tale [...] but ultimately one of redemption" – The Daily Telegraph

"Eve Ainsworth's gritty contemporary debut novel [...] takes a bold line, showing – in a life changing way – that bullying doesn't necessarily have just one victim." – The Guardian

School should be a safe place for Jess but at the moment it's everything she dreads. Her life is difficult enough without Kez picking on her. Kez's life isn't any sweeter. She has plenty of problems too but she finds comfort in knowing she is better off than Jess - or so she thinks. Told from the point of view of the bullied and the bully, this is a taut, powerful portrait of two girls locked in battle with each other and themselves, spiralling towards a shocking conclusion.

Lisa Thompson

"A genuinely clever mystery" – Robin Stevens, author of the Murder Most Unladylike series.

"A great cast of characters and an intriguing mystery - I loved it!" – Ross Welford, author of Time Travelling with a Hamster.

Twelve-year-old Matthew is trapped in his bedroom by crippling OCD, spending most of his time staring out of his window as the inhabitants of Chestnut Close go about their business. Until the day he is the last person to see his next door neighbour's toddler, Teddy, before he goes missing. Matthew must turn detective and unravel the mystery of Teddy's disappearance - with the help of a brilliant cast of supporting characters. Page-turning, heart-breaking, but ultimately life-affirming, this story is perfect for fans of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time and Wonder. It is a book that will make you laugh and cry.

Randa Abdel-Fattah

2017 | £7.99 | 9781407173474

"Readers will be swept up in their love story and will come away with a clearer understanding of how bias permeates the lives of those targeted by it." – Kirkus Reviews

"Abdel-Fattah expertly sidesteps heavy-handed lessons, instead deeply rooting the story in the experiences of these two teenagers, rendering their story [...] in utterly real and sympathetic terms." – BookList

Michael is drawn to his new classmate Mina, but they're on opposite sides of an issue that's tearing their town apart. His parents are part of an anti-immigration group, while her family have fled their besieged home in Afghanistan. As tensions rise, lines are drawn and both must decide what they want their world to look like, no matter the cost.
